Time, 19.44, 1:09, 1:43, 1:50.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Buchanan—Pauline Lee.
Start good. Won driving. Jefferson was best. He outclassed his field. His stable isn't any too frank. He was weakly finished with and is probably getting real good. Alarum was at home in the mud and got a strong ride. Nay Nay disliked the going but hung on well. Trayant is not good. He lost some lengths in the first part but made up a lot of ground. He favors a fast track. Abingdon quit like a dog. He appears to be unable to stay and favors a fast track. He is about up to seven furlongs. Chelsea had no chance at the start, being unable to break. He got an easy ride. Is a good looker. Watch him.

Scratched—Tripping, 103.

Overweights—Nay Nay, 2 pounds; Abingdon, 2.

Time, 124, 244, 374, 504, 1:04.

Winner—B. c. by Fonso—Savannah.
Start good. Won pulled up. Fonsovannah outclassed his field; is a wonder in the mud. Hunt is at home in it also. He ran a fine race. Homelike, green at the start, improved his position throughout and finished strong. He is promising. Ennomia is a big, long strider and cannot extend herself in mud. She will be best suited by a fast track. Throw her race out. Black Dude evidently favors a heavy track too. He finished strong and true. Watch Beekman. He is a good looker and ran well under bad handling. Anderson closed sharply last half. Stone Step was killed off early. He was unmanageable at the post but showed a great burst of speed in the first three furlongs.

Scratched—Refide, 99; Genaro, 93; Long Acre, 98; Briar Hill, 93.

Overweights—Fonsovannah, 5 pounds; Mr. Hunt, 24; Black Dude, 34; Beekman, 2.

Time, 124, 244, 374, 494, 1:03.

Winner—Ch. f. 3, by Saraband—Ixia.
Start good. Won driving. Tripping was the best. She was bothered first part and finished resolutely. She likes mud. Takanassee also liked the going and distance. Trillette was atrociously handled, shut off at the half, messed about generally and came very strong when making her run. She is probably more at home on a fast track. Yemen couldn't concede the weight his first out. He ran a good race at that. Junk and Ormont were outclassed. They may be considered at a distance in the cheaper classes.

Scratched—Premier, 140; Dye, 110.

708 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds. The Seagull Handicap. $2000 guaranteed.

Time, 13, 25, 37, 49, 1:16, 1:44.

Winner—Ch. f. by Escher—Meta.
Start good. Won easily. Slope outclassed her field in the mud, although herself acting somewhat state. Storm King disliked the peculiar going. He was a grand horse under a big disadvantage. The going made weight tell. Fireside wants sloppy or fast going and ran a good, game race. He had a good deal of speed. Chum ran an honest race. Casseopia showed much speed, but quit at seven furlongs and was pulled up.

Scratched—Haphazard, 118; Savarin, 110; Arabian, 107; Bastion, 95.

709 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. $700 added. 2-year-olds. Handicap.

Time, 124, 244, 374, 494, 1:16.

Winner—Ch. c. by Strathmore—Belle of the Highlands.

Start good. Won easily. Isabay's was a really great race. He ran like a crack. Mont d'Or looked like a winner at the half, but hung unaccountably. He came again in the last sixteenth in the gamest possible fashion. He must have suffered from bad handling. Michael looked sure of second place at the eighth pole, but the weight told. He ran a splendid race under disadvantage. Don't Care ran a fine race too. He is partial to mud and finished where he belonged. Sensational was outclassed.

Scratched—Nuto, 115; Fleeting Gold, 102; Sagacity, 100; Salabar, 111.

710 SIXTH RACE—1 Mile. $500 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 26, 504, 1:174, 1:44.

Winner—Ch. h. 5, by St Blaise—Flavina.
Start good. Won driving. Cromwell was best and splendidly handled. He was favored by weight and distance. Premier showed to advantage under Sloan and came fast and game last quarter. Sheppard, unequal to task, was under terrific pressure throughout. He wants a route. Refugee, at home in the going, likes this track and ran a fine race. Skate dislikes mud and wants a fast track.

Scratched—Ben Eder, 110; Lobengula, 100; Myrtle Harkness, 102.

Disqualified for foul.

Time, 254, 514, 1:03.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Martenhurst—May H.
Post 20 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Trolley was never extended. She made a runaway race of it. Marito swerved in front of Tartarian a hundred feet from the wire and the latter went to his knees. Hanlon was insane at the post and delayed the start. The weight anchored Tea Rose. It always will. She is small and fast. Tartarian would have been second but for foul.

Winner—Br. f. 3, by Whistle Jacket—Blue Bell.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second with something left; the next four were driving hard. Blue Jacket was the best and showed it. Burns got her away well on her stride and the filly tiptoed her field in the first half mile. Winslow ran a remarkable race. He was abruptly out off and had to pull up just after the start. Morgan persevered with him and skinned the rails. Had the track been muddy he surely would have won. Lon Jones ran a good race and finished strong. Tidiness had a stormy journey. Lillian M had a lot of speed, but wasted it chasing Blue Jacket. Senator M could not raise a gallop, and there was judicial censure meted out to Stover over the colt's bad race.
Scratched—Terrie, 103.

Winner—Ch. f. by Argyle—Ouse Bright.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two; third and fourth doing their best. Brightie S was the best seasoned. She outgamed Brown Gal through the stretch. The latter was well ridden. Sloan held her well together and kept her from swerving the last sixteenth. Tennie ran a good race and finished fast. Darechota, away poorly and pocketed most of the way, ran an honest race. Firelight showed some speed. Lady Marie had a rough journey. She was shut off and badly bumped about in the last sixteenth.
Overweights—Elizabeth K, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Siddartha—Loetitia.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second driving hard; the next two were staggering. It was an evenly paced race and Lady Callahan's win strictly to form. She is a speedy filly and Newcom rides her best. Dunois got away well on his stride. He had clear sailing and no excuses, except those around not being keyed up. Callahan simply ran too fast for him. Imp was raced to pieces first three-quarters. She likes neither distance nor weight, except at intervals. The filly is a tough betting tool. Only the first three were contenders.
Scratched—The Plutocrat, 110; Serrano, 110.

Time, 24, 494, 1:02, 1:15.
Winner—Br. c. 3, by Dutch Organ—Ruth.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won hand ridden, yet out to the limit; second, third and fourth driving hard. Gustave Cook was short of speed. He could never get up, but was closing on the end. He likes a mile best. Yet his race was not to the mark. Morea ran a good race. Donaldson drove him the last three furlongs. Watch him among his own kind. Admetus made a strong bid through the stretch. He can win on a slow track. Aureola will hardly do. Zimmerman is getting good and pulled up sound.
Scratched—Red, 108.
